ABIC 06 – Arabic Language in Jordan (Private Group Program)

Ali Baba International Center \(ABIC\) is an Arabic Language Institute situated in the heart of Amman, the vibrant capital of Jordan. ABIC offers tailored Arabic language programs for groups of students traveling and studying together. A customized program may consist solely of a language course or include the three core components of a full immersion experience: (1). A language course, (2). A comfortable accommodation, and (3). A set of rich extracurricular activities and guided-tours to the major tourist attractions of Jordan. Details are given below.

Program Academics

The group has full flexibility in designing its customized program, including decisions on the duration, start and end dates, instructional materials, course topics, and the number of contact hours per day or week. ABIC has extensive experience delivering Arabic language and special-topic courses across a wide range of fields such as politics, business, economics, religion, Arabic literature, diplomacy, media and journalism, Arabic and Islamic history and culture, among many others.

Official Credit Transfer and Equivalency

Upon completion of the group program, ABIC provides official transcripts and can furnish supporting documentation to assist home institutions in awarding academic credit. As a general guideline, one credit hour is typically granted for every 15 to 20 contact hours completed.

Accommodation Options

The group may select from a range of student accommodation options offered by ABIC, including private apartments, shared apartments, and homestays with local families. All accommodations are conveniently located near the Center and are easily accessible either on foot or via a short taxi ride. For more detailed information on each housing option, please visit our Accommodation Page.

Cultural Engagement: On-Campus Events and Off-Campus Trips

The group can take part in a rich variety of on-campus extracurricular activities and weekly off-campus excursions. These activities range from interactive workshops and cultural events to guided excursions across Jordan. To explore photos and videos from past events, please visit our Activities Gallery Page.

Program Cost

Program costs vary based on several factors, including the type of customized group program, the number of participants, program duration, and selected accommodation options. For a tailored quote specific to your group's needs, please contact us at info@alibaba.jo.
