ABIC 01 – Arabic Language in Jordan (Semester Program)

Ali Baba International Center (ABIC) is an Arabic Language Institute situated in the heart of Amman, the vibrant capital of Jordan. The Center offers year-round Arabic language immersion programs designed to provide a comprehensive cultural and linguistic experience. A typical Semester program includes three core components: (1) an intensive Arabic language course, (2) comfortable, student-friendly accommodation, and (3) a dynamic schedule of extracurricular activities and guided tours to Jordan's most renowned historical and cultural sites. Further details are provided below.

Program Academics

At the heart of the program is the Arabic language course. Key details—such as instructional hours, proficiency levels, core textbooks, thematic content, credit transfer guidelines, and program dates—are outlined below.

- Number of Hours : The program delivers a total of 320 contact hours over a 16-week period. Instruction is provided five days a week, with four hours of class time each day, totaling 20 teaching hours per week. This schedule results in approximately 80 instructional hours each month.
- Levels : Each group course is offered at three main levels: beginner, intermediate, and advanced. Depending on enrollment, these levels may be further divided into sub-levels to better accommodate students' needs. Placement into small, level-appropriate groups is determined by the results of an online placement test and a pre-course interview.
- Text Books: The instructional materials at ABIC are primarily drawn from two internationally recognized textbooks—Al-Kitaab and Al-Asas—and are further enriched with a range of supplementary resources and interactive activities.
- Topics and Content: The course emphasizes all key language skills, including listening, speaking, pronunciation, reading, writing, vocabulary, grammar, and interactive activities. Course content is tailored by the instructor to match the students' proficiency level and specific language needs. At the intermediate and advanced levels, instruction covers a broad range of topics, including Arabic media, politics, and contemporary issues in the Arab world, among others.
- Official Credit Transfer and Equivalency : This program is typically equivalent to at least 16 credit hours at most credit-based universities. ABIC issues official transcripts at the end of each academic term and can provide supporting documentation to help home institutions facilitate direct credit transfer. As a general guideline, one credit hour is granted for every 15 to 20 contact hours completed at ABIC.

- Program Dates: This semester-based program is offered twice annually: once in the Fall Semester and once in the Spring Semester.
